CLERK: Mr. President, I have a motion. Senator Newell moves to return 956 to Select File for a specific amendment. Read amendment.

PRESIDENT: Senator Newell.

SENATOR NEWELL: Mr. President, members of the body. This amendment may sound familiar to you, I offered it once before. The difference this time is that we did make some changes and some compromises. Instead of saying that it is "mandatory" we said that they "may", now that is that little technicality which would allow them to make the determination. Them meaning the Department of Roads. We also are not adding any additional money with this amendment. This amendment would only be to authorize the Department of Roads to use their own cash funds, money that has already been appropriated for this purpose. It is not an additional expenditure, it is suggesting to the Department of Roads that they should look into this and possibly build one of these units. Also, we have asked that the University
